

Cut out each situation and paste on an index card. Divide class into 6 groups of 4. Each group will need to come up with a solution to their situation. They will create a poster and present their solution to the class.

Situation 1:

Your family farms for a living. Due to the drought you have lost all of your crops and have nothing to sell at the local market. How has the scarcity of water affected your lifestyle? What can your community do to help you? How can your family get through these difficult times?

Situation 2:

Your family raises livestock for a living. The scarcity of water has greatly affected your ability to live. Almost all of your animals have died due to the drought. You now have only one cow and two goats to sell at the market. What can your community do to help you? How can your family get through these difficult times?

Situation 3:

An outbreak of violence has occurred in your town due to the hardships the drought has caused. People are breaking into houses in search of goods to sell at the market for money. People are also stealing livestock. What can your community do to stop the violence?

Situation 4:

Families in your community are starving due to the drought. Your family is forced to leave in search of food, water and a better life. You and your siblings are forced to drop out of school. What can you do to stay in school? Why is it important to your future?

Cut out each situation and paste on an index card. Divide class into 6 groups of 4. Each group will need to come up with a solution to their situation. They will create a poster and present their solution to the class.

Situation 5:

You have just learned about the drought in Kenya and how the scarcity of water is affecting the lives of many people. In the past you have helped bring food and water to communities in need. You will be traveling to Kenya to help families in need. How are you going to help the people in need?

Situation 6:

You have just learned about the drought in Kenya and how the scarcity of water is affecting the lives of many people. In the past you have helped bring food and water to communities in need. You will be traveling to Kenya to help families in need. How are you going to help the people in need?

